Sub.: Introduction of Mising Language as Medium of instruction at primary level.

Dear Sir,

Warm greeting from Mising Agom Kébang (Mising Sahitya Sabha).

With due respect and humble submission, we the undersigned for and on behalf of the Mising Agom Kébang (Mising Sahitya Sabha) would like to draw your kind attention towards few lines for your kind consideration and early processing.

That sir, the Mising is the second largest populous tribal ethnic groups in Assam, having more than 10 Lakhs spreading in 10 districts namely Dhemaji, Lakhimpur, Sonitpur, Tinsukia, Dibrugarh, Sivasagar, Jorhat, Golaghat, Chowraideo and Biswanath Chariali in the State. While inhabiting in riparian habitat and maintaining agrarian culture, the people of the community have been facing countless hurdles from both natural calamities and the establishment since time immemorial.

That sir, the children of the community have been deprived to enjoy the constitutional rights in respect of getting education in their mother tongue as provided under the Right to Education Act, 2009 and Article 350A of the Constitution of India even after submission of representation in this respect to your esteemed authority.
